Offit Kurman's Cheryl Hepfer Named a 2027 Lawdragon 500 Leading Family Law Lawyer

October 15, 2026

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Cheryl Hepfer has been named a 2027 Lawdragon 500 Leading Family Lawyer.

The guide recognizes attorneys who demonstrate exceptional skills, compassion, and innovation in family law, helping clients navigate complex personal matters involving divorce, custody, support, property division, and wealth preservation. Honorees are identified through Lawdragon's longstanding editorial process, which includes nominations, independent research, peer evaluation, and review of recent impactful matters.

Lawdragon's selection process is rooted in more than 30 years of legal industry reporting. Lawyers included in this guide typically have significant experience in major international arbitration practices, where advocates parse jurisdictions and legal frameworks for matters concerning sovereigns, construction, energy, and more.

Founded in 2005, Lawdragon is a digital media company known for its lawyer guides and wide-reaching legal industry content. Its open-access reporting and attorney recognition programs are followed by industry leaders and clients nationwide.
