

Publications & News

Publications and Presentations

Offit Kurman's Ian Thomas to Speak on Gaming Law Ethics at IMGL Spring 2024 Conference

April 11, 2024

Principal attorney Ian Thomas will participate as a panelist at the International Masters of Gaming Law (IMGL) Spring 2024 Conference on Thursday, April 11, in Tampa, FL. Ian will join an ethics-focused roundtable titled "Problem Gaming, Problem Drinking, and Ethics in Gaming Law."

The panel will explore complex ethical issues related to problem gaming and behavioral challenges encountered by both clients and practitioners in the gaming law space. With a dynamic practice focused on regulatory compliance, governance, licensing, and litigation, Ian advises a wide range of clients in the e-sports, sports wagering, and iGaming sectors. His insights will spotlight current challenges in gaming law, as well as emerging trends shaping the future of the field.

For more information on the IMGL 2024 Spring Conference, visit: IMGL Conference Details.

Related People

- Ian Thomas