

OK at Work: Developing Policies Around Generative AI

May 30, 2023

By Russell B. Berger and Sarah M. Sawyer

As technology revolutionizes the corporate world, artificial intelligence (AI) is rapidly becoming ubiquitous in daily office operations. Generative AI, in particular, allows businesses to streamline their processes, from automatic report generation to predictive analytics. However, adopting generative AI also comes with potential concerns, especially regarding how employees use it to perform their essential tasks. On this week's OK at Work, Sarah Sawyer and Russell Berger discuss what employers should consider and the importance of developing policies governing the use of AI in the workplace. Listen to learn more.
