

OK at Work: Technology in the Workplace

August 24, 2021

By Russell B. Berger and Sarah M. Sawyer

On this week's episode of OK at Work, Russell Berger and Sarah Sawyer discuss how advances in technology impact employers, including how automation impacts the need for employees and software solutions are streamlining operations. As costs associated with retaining and training employees continue to rise, Sarah and Russell discuss how companies can use technology to reduce employee-related administrative burdens and keep employees by increasing efficiency and employee morale. Tune in to learn more.
