Offit Kurman Adds Ori Blumenfeld to Bankruptcy Practice in LA

September 2, 2025

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Ori Blumenfeld has joined the firm as a principal attorney in the bankruptcy practice group, based in the firm's downtown Los Angeles office.

Ori brings extensive experience guiding individuals, businesses, and fiduciaries through complex financial distress, corporate reorganizations, and insolvency matters. His practice encompasses bankruptcy proceedings, distressed asset transactions, and related litigation, with clients ranging from institutional creditors and trustees to receivers, partition referees, and court-appointed fiduciaries.

With a solutions-oriented and "concierge" approach, Ori goes beyond legal counsel to connect clients with resources that support long-term stability. His litigation background, coupled with his advisory role to federal and state receivers, makes him a trusted advocate in both courtroom and negotiation settings.

A native Angeleno, Ori is fluent in Hebrew and conversant in Spanish. Beyond his practice, he has a strong record of community leadership, including serving as Chair of the Human Relations Commission for the City of Beverly Hills and on the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles County Bar Association.
