

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Attorney Peter Spanos Featured in The Enterprise World Magazine

November 19, 2025

Offit Kurman is proud to announce that attorney Peter Spanos has been profiled in The Enterprise World magazine's special issue, "The Most Visionary Legal Strategists to Watch 2025." The feature spotlights Peter's distinguished career in employment law and his role as a trusted advisor to employers facing today's rapidly evolving labor and workforce dynamics.

With decades of experience representing companies of all sizes, from emerging businesses to national corporations, Peter is recognized for his strategic approach to resolving workplace disputes and building proactive compliance programs. The article highlights his commitment to practical, business-driven solutions, his deep understanding of the employer's perspective, and his long-standing dedication to helping organizations confidently navigate complex regulatory and litigation challenges.

The feature also examines Peter's leadership within the legal community and his emphasis on aligning legal strategy with broader organizational objectives to mitigate risk and foster business success.

The full article is available here: The Most Visionary Legal Strategists to Watch – 2025 | The Enterprise World.

Related People

- Peter Spanos

Related Services

- Labor and Employment