Dallas, Texas – 214.617.2849

Quynh-Anh "Annie" Nguyen supports attorneys in complex commercial litigation matters, with a background spanning research and development tax credits, employee retention tax credits, captive insurance arrangements, and federal criminal prosecution. She has worked on matters involving substantial document productions, high-stakes tax disputes, and multi-defendant federal prosecutions, and is adept at managing sensitive information and demanding deadlines. Annie assists with all phases of litigation, including preparation for depositions, arbitrations, bench and jury trials, and post-trial briefing before the United States Tax Court.
