

The Role of an Expert Witness

February 12, 2026

By Anders Sleight and Niall McMillan

Join Anders Sleight and Niall McMillan from Offit Kurman as they explore the significance of expert witnesses in commercial litigation. This episode of Litigators Lounge explains the difference between fact witnesses and expert witnesses, highlights when expert witnesses are essential, and outlines their impact on shaping the case. The discussion also covers who bears the cost of expert witnesses and the strategic importance of choosing the right expert for your case. Whether you're dealing with construction defects, contract disputes, or shareholder disputes, this episode provides key insights into leveraging expert witnesses effectively in court.