Ronald Ogens Recognized for 25 Years as a Fellow with the Maryland Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers

October 21, 2021

Offit Kurman is excited to congratulate Ronald Ogens on his 25 years as a Fellow with the Maryland Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (AAML). The AAML's purpose is "to provide leadership that promotes the highest degree of professionalism and excellence in the practice of family law." The AAML states that "to be represented by a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers is to be represented by a leading practitioner in the field of family law." Mr. Ogens was presented with an award by the Maryland Chapter for his 25 years of outstanding contribution.

Mr. Ogens' practice as a family law attorney is focused on the negotiation, settlement and litigation of family law matters in Maryland and the District of Columbia. He handles a variety of divorce matters, including separation and divorce, annulment, alimony and child support issues and analysis, child custody and visitation issues and the identification, valuation, classification, and division of marital and non-marital property.
