Russell Berger Named to The Daily Record's 2025 Employment Law Power List

May 30, 2025

Offit Kurman is pleased to congratulate Principal and General Counsel Russell Berger on being named to The Daily Record's 2025 Employment Law Power List. The list compiles those "among the most influential and respected practitioners in the business and employment law sector in Maryland."

The "Power List" is chosen by The Daily Record's editorial leadership team with input from readers and others in the legal community.

In his practice, Russell serves as outside general counsel and a trusted business advisor to small and mid-sized companies, helping clients address day-to-day legal concerns and long-term strategic goals. He also provides guidance on labor and employment matters, offering both litigation defense and proactive counsel to minimize risk and support operational efficiency. Russell's dual role as Offit Kurman's General Counsel and a practicing attorney gives him a unique perspective on aligning legal solutions with business growth. He is a pragmatic problem-solver committed to helping business leaders stay focused on what matters most—growing their organizations
