Samantha Cabral is an experienced paralegal with over 12 years of practice, supporting attorneys across a range of legal matters, including criminal defense, immigration, and personal injury on both the plaintiff and defense sides. She is skilled in drafting legal documents, including pleadings, discovery requests and responses, and motions. She plays a vital role in case management, including organizing files, coordinating depositions, and maintaining effective client communication.

Samantha also provides critical support through all phases of trial, from preparing comprehensive trial binders and organizing exhibits to drafting subpoenas and coordinating with expert witnesses and trial participants. She brings strong attention to detail and effectively manages complex caseloads as a reliable and versatile member of the legal team.
