Sara E. Kayser is a paralegal with nearly eight years of experience, focusing primarily on litigation matters for corporate clients with an emphasis on e-discovery. She also brings experience in general counsel and transactional work, providing comprehensive support across a range of legal needs. Sara plays an important role in managing complex discovery processes and identifying critical information that supports effective case strategy.

Sara began her legal career in 2018 as a receptionist at a small firm and has since developed a strong interest in the investigative aspects of litigation and working closely with clients. Outside of the office, she enjoys watching Braves baseball, cooking, traveling, exploring the outdoors with her dog, and spending time with her children.
