Offit Kurman is pleased to congratulate Chairman Theodore "Ted" A. Offit on being named to The Daily Record's 2025 Power 100. The list compiles "the people who play an outsized role in the culture, lifestyle, civic conversations and economic fortunes of Maryland."

The "Power 100" is chosen by The Daily Record's editorial leadership team with input from readers and others in the legal community.

As chairman and co-founder of Offit Kurman, Ted's strategic leadership has guided the firm's expansion into a nationally recognized Am Law 200 law firm with offices across ten states and the District of Columbia. With over 40 years of legal and business experience, Ted serves as general counsel and trusted advisor to numerous privately held and nonprofit organizations, offering insight on governance, succession planning, and strategic growth. A lifelong entrepreneur and community leader, Ted has held multiple leadership roles within the firm, including CEO until 2021, and continues to shape its vision and impact.
