Thomas Powell Named to Arlington Magazine's 2026 Top Lawyers List

October 20, 2026

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Thomas Powell, principal in the firm's Construction Law practice group, has been named to Arlington Magazine's 2026 Top Lawyers list.

Thomas focuses his practice on contracts, construction and commercial litigation, and government contracts in Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

This honor is based on a peer survey conducted by Arlington Magazine, in which local attorneys nominated peers across 21 practice areas. To ensure balance, participants could recommend attorneys from their own firms only if they also nominated an equal or greater number of attorneys from other firms. The list is limited to attorneys practicing in Arlington County, Fairfax County, the City of Falls Church, and the City of Alexandria. Arlington Magazine administered the survey but was not involved in the selection process.
