Three Offit Kurman Attorneys Named to Virginia Business's 2025 Legal Elite

November 2, 2025

Offit Kurman is proud to announce that attorneys Kyle Bartol, Joseph A. Condo, and Lauren A. Jenkins have been named to Virginia Business's 2025 Legal Elite list. This annual recognition highlights leading attorneys across Virginia, as nominated and selected by their peers.

Kyle Bartol has been selected to the Family Law Domestic Relations Law Category for his more than two decades of concentrated family law experience. A seasoned litigator, he handles complex matters including high-net-worth property distribution, business valuations, support issues, custody, and marital agreements in Virginia's circuit and juvenile courts. Since 1998, Kyle has achieved strong results through negotiation, mediation, litigation, and appellate advocacy, helping clients navigate challenging family matters with confidence.

Joseph Condo, recognized in the Family Law/Domestic Relations Law category, has devoted nearly 50 years to guiding clients through all aspects of family law, including custody, support, and property division. Joe's practice is centered on guiding clients through the complexities of marriage dissolution with efficiency and care, achieving a negotiated or mediated resolution in over 95% of his cases.

Lauren Jenkins was honored in the Taxes/Estates/Trusts category for her dedication to helping clients achieve their personal and financial goals through tax and estate planning, trust and estate administration, and prenuptial and postnuptial agreements. Lauren works with individuals and families in Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia to craft comprehensive estate plans that preserve wealth for future generations. Her practice also includes guiding fiduciaries through the complexities of estate administration and advocating for beneficiaries to protect their interests.

Since 2000, Virginia Business has partnered with the Virginia Bar Association to compile the Legal Elite list, which identifies top attorneys in 21 legal specialties.
