

William E. Erskine

Principal

werskine@offitkurman.com

Columbia, MD – 301.575.0363

William E. Erskine is both a business attorney and real estate attorney, whose practice is focused primarily on commercial litigation, construction litigation, real estate, zoning and land use matters.

William has extensive experience representing clients in land use and zoning matters across Maryland, including subdivision and land development, re-zonings and legislative appeals. He also spent 12 years as a solo practitioner, handling commercial litigation work for businesses and individuals, as well as bankruptcy, criminal defense and domestic cases.

Education

- University of Baltimore School of Law (J.D.)
- University of Maryland (B.S.)
 - College of Business and Management

State Bar Admissions

- Maryland

Court Admissions

- United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit
- United States District Court for the District of Maryland

Professional Affiliations

- Howard County Economic Development Authority, Board of Directors, 2008-2018
- Howard County Chamber of Commerce, Legal Counsel & Ex-Officio, Board of Directors
- ARC of Howard County, Board of Directors

Recognitions

Services

- Business Law and Transactions
- Commercial Litigation
- Real Estate Law and Transactions

- Named to The Best Lawyers in America® for Land Use and Zoning Law, Litigation - Construction, Real Estate Law (2021-2026)